Champions

Cindy: I don't think so. My classmates are fast runners. I'm shorter than Iris, and I'm weaker than Helen. How can I win the race?

Grandpa: Cheer up! You just need to practise[3] more. Uncle Joe is good at running. You can ask him for help.

Cindy: Sports Day is on the twenty-third of October. Do I have enough time?

Grandpa: Of course you do. There are still four weeks before the race. Practise every day from the twenty-fifth of September to the twenty-second of October.

Cindy: How long should I practise for each day?

Grandpa: One hour should be fine. Remember to do warm-up exercises before running

Cindy: Thanks so much, Grandpa! It's always nice to talk to you. Bye!

After talking to Grandpa, Cindy asked her uncle for help. For the next four weeks, Cindy ran at the park with her uncle. Every day, she became fitter than the day before.

Finally, the day of the race arrived. Cindy had a bad start and was in last place at the beginning of the race. 'Oh, no! I'm slower than all the others,' she thought. Suddenly, she heard a familiar[4] voice shouting, 'Run, Cindy, run!'

Cindy began to run really hard. She was faster than all the other runners and won the race! Grandpa was cheering[5] and clapping his hands next to the finishing line. 'Well done, Cindy!' Grandpa hugged[6] Cindy. 'It's all thanks to you, Grandpa! I'm so happy to see you here,' Cindy smiled.
